CHILDREN ARE OFTEN THE LARGEST GROUP AFFECTED IN HUMANITARIAN CRISES, YET THEIR VOICES REMAIN UNHEARD. HOW CAN WE ENSURE THEY—AND OTHER AFFECTED COMMUNITIES—ARE ACTIVE PARTICIPANTS IN DECISIONS THAT SHAPE THEIR FUTURES?

This session, hosted by the Alliance for Child Protection in Humanitarian Action & NORCAP, will explore practical solutions to strengthen localisation, accountability, and people-centred humanitarian action. Experts will share real-world insights from Moldova, Ethiopia, Burkina Faso, and Myanmar on shifting power to communities, breaking down silos, and creating sustainable, community-driven responses.
